
Nichole Stefanow

Work History

Sept 2013—Present, Family & Youth Initiatives
Women's Network Director: train staff and volunteers; ensure needs are met for 3 networks
Establish reporting criteria, track data and prepare monthly/quarterly reports for grantors;
Maintain PRC records for county Job & Family Services
Coordinate and facilitate classes for clients; coordinate fundraisers with sponsors

July 2009—July 2015, Premier Designs Jewelry
Direct Sales Consultant: schedule dates and demonstrate in homes
Educate women using accessories to build confidence and self esteem
Help plan and facilitate monthly training for local unit
Maintained downline of 4-7 representatives, helping them achieve their goals

July 1999– Dec 2005, Pampered Chef
Direct Sales Consultant: scheduled dates and kitchen demonstrations in homes
Educated guests on proper use of kitchen tools

Sept 1994– June 2007, Home Educator
Responsible for education of 4 children grades K-12
Prepared lesson plans and curriculum, kept grades
Reported records to Ohio Education Dept.

Volunteer History

2008—Present, Fairborn Women's Network
Mentoring clients in pregnancy and parenting, using lessons provided
Assistant Coordinator in 2010, helping with administrative duties
Coordinator in 2012, coordinate and facilitate additional classes and educational opportunities for clients

1993-2011, Maple Ave. Church of God
Held several board and committee positions throughout 19 years
Taught children, youth and adults
Youth Counselor and Fundraiser Coordinator—5 years
Newcomer and Fellowship Coordinator—10 years

Education

1983, High School Diploma, North High School, Eastlake, Ohio
Computer Programming Certificate—Willoughby/Eastlake Technical Center

References

Available upon request